The Vision of a NEW WORLD

Ascended Master of Light with the Founding Creators of the New World through Aluna Joy Yaxk'in - 11/5/2008

a vision of a NEW WORLD. This new world began to manifest as the United States, and the vision began to anchor unity in the diversities of the planet. It was to be a union and harmonization of "states" of consciousness. It was a vision of a matrix of light between all living beings. A team of Ascended Masters and a Legion of Light Beings were present at the birth of this union of states. They began the process of anchoring this divine vision. There was a pervading sense of hope and innocence. They created a powerful plan for manifesting a new world.

Once the vision began to manifest on the Earth, challenges followed. The vision began to tarnish because the vision was placed in the hands of humankind that was still very much asleep. The horrific events that followed at first did not seem that they were in alignment with the original vision. A succession of events created a cloud over this land that blocked the light of the true vision of unity.

The ones who were already living in the land, called the "new world", were nearly destroyed. Others from other places on the Earth were imported as slaves to build this new world. Sacred documents drafted for this new land still held a substantial amount of the original vision, yet wars, slavery, prejudice, and shocking assassinations tarnished its light.

In recent years, those now living can still remember Pearl Harbor and the following response in Hiroshima, the assignation of a great leader, and the infamous date of 9/11, and how these events tarnished the innocence of this divine union. The cloud grew so dark and thick that you could barely see the light of this vision anymore. Your voices were gagged, and your truth was put in shackles. You felt trapped. Respect of one's land and country dimmed beyond recognition, yet you could not speak about it. The collective shame and building country karma was an unbearable burden to bear. It was a numbing darkness.

But . . . we recently said that the year 2008 would be the year that paradise would return. By your tenacity and conviction to that thread of light inside of you, and your conviction to the vision, you have pushed the envelope of time to manifesting the original vision of the new world by 4 years.

Today you have stood up and taken back the light. You may not have recognized the connection of recent events, nor even remembered the vision, but you acted from your hearts once again. The heart never forgets the light, or the vision that was placed there in a divine order. You are celebrating in the streets as the light returns. Not only is the new world celebrating, but the entire Planet with it! The evidence is clear with the election of a new leader. But just as that vision of the new world was not about the land but a new union, this leader is not about the color of the skin, but a quality of light. This one is a living bridge between races. Your action to take back the light and speak your truth once again has allowed this new leader, who carries a great piece of the vision, to go to a place where you can, as a union of states of diverse consciousness, finally manifest the vision of a new world. Peace, harmony and light of this planet are returning.

The shackles have broken away . . . the stains on this new land and the hearts of the people have been washed clean. The dark cloud is lifting. Bows of multicolored light are circling the sun. We are no longer separated by color of skin, race, religion, culture, social status, or consciousness. You have grown up. You have matured and evolved past those shallow ways of being. You have seen the matrix of light that connects you all. You are a beautiful melting pot of humanity. Your hearts are finally joining as one in the vision of the light.

This is a very sacred day for you all. Hold this day very dear in your hearts with utmost respect, and do not let the events in the future tarnish or darken this vision again. You have survived through the polar opposite of the original vision of light. Now that you know what the vision is not, it is up to you all to create together the vision that it IS. The path has been cleared for you, one and ALL. Now it is time for you to take that first step into the new world that you all have dreamt. Congratulations! You did it!

RESPONCES... to this event!

💎 Dearest Hearts,

I believe that Mahatma Gandhi and Dr. Martin Luther King along with names too vast to mention that have come before us, sacrificed for us, continuously watch over us and stand amongst us have taken a sigh of relief as the meaning of the above quotes began to unfurl last night. We have begun the process in a tangible way of seeing for ourselves the Power of Who We Are and What We Are Capable of when we put our attention and intention to something we value and we have longed for.

As Barack Obama said last night "this was a victory made possible by the people and for the people." We have done a magnificent, stellar job of using our inherent greatness to make change, and whether Democrat or Republican everyone played their part to perfection on levels that may not be so clearly recognized at this current time. What appeared as separation and agitation was the means by which history was made and a new relationship was forged with one of our many Beloved countries that comprise this Beloved Planet.

Now that we have put into motion the change that was seen and heard around the world, and will continue to be experienced around the world, let this new day be the day in which we put into motion our personal destiny, on the heels of the momentum of yesterday. Let us take our personal internal agitation and feelings of separation and turn it into the pearls of our Destiny.

Let this day be the day we stop being afraid of what we might lose if we begin to remake ourselves by creating a new reality that is harmonious with our deepest dreams for our precious Selves. Let this be the day that we leave behind everything and anyone that does not uphold and support our new personal realities, our own personal dreams. Leave behind the mind that says you can't. November 4, 2008 proved that anything is possible. ANYTHING.

Let this be the day that we cease being immobilized because of the economy. We must not plug up the flow of God's Grace and limitless supply. Every single time that we become immobilized or fearful about anything we CUT OFF infinite possibility, potential and life force. Be wise in your spending, be wise, not paralyzed.

Let this be the day that you mine the content of your true character enabling you to not only ride the wave of yesterday's global victory, but also ride the wave of your personal one.

Let this be the day that we embrace patience and compassion with ourselves as we unleash our great potential.

Let this be the day that fear of failure, due to any notions about former experiences or predictions made by your mind or another's be transmuted into the LIGHT of a new Truth. YOU HAVE NO LIMITS! What was, no longer is! What will be, is a blank canvas yet to have your current imprint on it. Clean up your imprint if you must and then move on.

Let this be the day that you create an intention for your life, put all of your attention on it, and your heart in it and move. BE FEARLESS and campaign to claim it as if your Life depended on it, because it does. Let this be the day that you call forth the Greatest Campaign Manager ever, God and never make a move without Her.

Let this be the day that you call forth a team to assist you in your creation of a new reality that has inserted itself into the Christ Consciousness (please come to deeply understand what that consciousness really and truly is) and never make a move without it.

Let this be the day that we give over independence and create an alliance of interdependence with God and the Christ Consciousness and those who love you and support you.

Let this be the day that we each take this campaign on behalf of ourselves seriously or there will be eight more years, like the last eight years...

Imagine where we would be today if Barack Obama had backed down or backed out as he faced past history and became immobilized to claim his current victory.

Imagine. Your victory is at hand. Claim it.

💎 I AM in such a state of Hope, Enthusiasm and Bliss and wanted to share with you my amazing experiences over the last few days. Nothing short of miraculous. I hope as you read this it will be with an open heart for you can FEEL the energy behind the words and in the story. This is why I AM sharing this journey. Although it is a very personal experience, it is without a doubt, about you and all MANKIND. Wow ! I need to take a deep breath.

... Days leading up to the Presidential Election I was guided by my soul to listen as the parties spoke and to help hold the energy of Integrity and the energy for the highest good for mankind. Many times throughout the days, Dr. Martin Luther Kings speech " I Have A Dream" came on. I was amazed at how many times, and each time it was read it was instilling in all of us that his dream was now "our dream". Our dream and vision for Mankind.

November 4 ~ 2008. All day I could feel the energy of many of our Forefathers, including Gandhi, Dr. Martin Luther King, Kennedy, Master Jesus, all helping us to hold the dream.

Boy was the energy intense, and it had been building for 4 days. I felt in a very positive way. I was very anxious to see how the day would go with the Election, with the people and in the world for ALL Mankind. TRULY this was going to be THE day for a new earth and consciousness to be ushered in. I could just feel it in all my bodies, my heart and soul. I somehow felt different.

... at that second they announced that our new President Elect was Obama. I just wept and I couldn't stop. I knew at that moment that all of our dreams and visions of our forefathers and all of US had come true! ... At that moment I had such a sense of love, peace and hope for the planet and all mankind. But, I also knew that this was just a baby step. That all of us now need to help keep this dream and vision alive. It was ALL of us for many years helping to shift mankind's consciousness, all of our prayers, gatherings, intentions and our vote. All of this made this election a reality ! WE the PEOPLE did this ! Thank you ALL so very much !

I woke up today. Nov. 5 and at first I wondered if it was all real or did I dream it all and opened my eyes and knew it was real and had a great sense of peace, tranquility and calmness within me. Still feeling it was all so surreal. Somehow everything felt different. I went to my local Cafe for what I felt was a victory meal and celebration. The energies all around me were different somehow, the town and people were different, the waitress was singing and all were happy and talking. The AIR itself was different, the impressions of people all around was different. So, As I'm waiting for my breakfast, I grabbed the placemat and wanted to write all these thoughts down and this is what I wrote.

There is a undeniable positive shift in the energy that makes up our town, your town and the world. Waves of Enthusiasm, Shared Power and HOPE have encompassed the planet and all mankind. It was as if Obama was anchoring in this energy during his victory speech. I hope everyone watched Obama speak and felt his sincerity and hope. If not I will share my experience and then maybe they will.

We did this, all of us, together, it could NOT of been any other way. We can make a difference. We DID! Our new President was elected by We The People! ... And we as a collective will continue to hold these energies and give Obama the strength and courage to get through all adversities that he may face as he continues to have hope and peace for mankind and as he continues to think outside the box. Thank you President Elect Obama for having that dream and vision. And then having the strength to bring it forward for all of us. You are a VISIONARY !

Before I end many of you have asked me if there is a significance with the number 44. Our new President Elect is our 44th President. YES it is a VERY SIGNIFICANT number. Here is what the 44 and 444 numbers represent. 44 and 444: The Presence of Angels and ability for Angelic communication or you have completed an important phase and it is the number of resurrection. How sweet is that!

Thank you for all that you continue to do ! I LOVE you ALL. God Bless ALL Mankind and our New Earth ! Namaste' Kari

💎 Thank you and the Star Elders for always bringing a perspective of Light to every situation and event in the world. Only at the end of election day did we realize how much this meant to us - that we could have a new president with both vision and intelligence ... Wow! ... and it was our choice all along ... the whole world is rejoicing in the possibilities of change open to us now.... And it sure didn't pass us by that Election Day was the very last day of the Tzolk'in, the closing of an old cycle ... the new cycle is already full of promise. Thank you, Dear Sister, Beloved Masters, and Star Elders. It just gets more and more exciting, doesn't it Love, Linda and David ~ New Zealand

💎 I have just read your email "we did it" and everything you say in it I have felt and am feeling. My heart opened to this incredible event about a week ago. I could feel it coming and the tears just never stopped. This is a turning point in history, in our lives. As my husband and I watched Barrack's speech, we both had tears rolling down our cheeks. What a moment. We have waited so long for this - centuries and now finally there is hope for humanity. Thanks so much for sharing all the BEAUTY that you are. In Loving Light, Rosemary.

💎 As we rapidly approach 2012, the timing of this event and Aluna's beautiful words are perfect. Some of us experienced a similar heartfelt hope twice before after our country's elections. Unfortunately it was soon discovered that there were stronger powers in control of those whom we thought were the leaders who could make a difference. It is important not to fall back asleep again but to focus our country's healing toward transmuting the energy of those who are coming from greed the ones who have held influence over our elected leaders... We are moving forward around the circle of life back to the Love vibration and it is important to celebrate each successful joyful step along the way!!! Shalandra

💎 I read your inspiring Newsletter, "The Vision of a New World." Mahalo for sharing this. I am so pleased with Obama's election to the U.S. Presidency. I feel Obama is a person who brings in the Genetic Healing of all his past relations of Race (Black & White combined) and Culture, Education, and Consciousness. Each of us stands at this moment in Time offering our own selves to be healed on all levels and simultaneously all of our past/ future generations are healed. The Divine Plan is restored in US, as we get it and return to Love. So this is a historic moment in the recordings of time. We have a convergence of Consciousness and Hope and upliftment by a Man who chooses to live in Humility and Grace. His Acceptance Speech last night awoke in us once again the Invitation for all of us to Work together to make this a better World and become more conscious of all races. I Am moved by the Response from around the World as they feel connected to this Transition in our US Government. It is about more than a Government change. It is truly a shift in Consciousness for all of us. A Doorway of Great Light has opened, and we are stepping through it as a World Family. . .may I say as a Cosmic Family of LIght. Love, Violet

💎 ... If you didn't feel the rush of hope, love and personal power return to the masses, then you might want to check your pulse ~ Michael

Thank you for the newsletter acknowledging the shift that has taken place in the US and in the world. The word is UNITY and the word has energy and force. Fear is a four letter word we feel sometimes even when we don't want to, but let us all focus on helping each other along the way as our path forward is a difficult one. I feel a certain liberation and a karmic debt paid with the election of Obama to the presidency. The majority chose the diplomat over the warrior. For me I am at peace. Blessings, Marilyn Graham

Thank you for your wonderful message after the election. This is a great time for hope for our World and with leaders like Barack Obama and people willing to work together for the good of all. This is a very uplifting time for our Planet. We are blessed. Thank you God. Love, Adrienne

Yes, I also hope and wish that peace, love, joy and all the good things will return to the USA and from there all over the world. We in South Africa will vote next year - the date has not been set yet, but it will be early in the year - and I hope that the voters will remember the USA vote and that the then NEW Government will take a look at Obamas promises and resolutions and take note and implement the same here so that peace and love for all will return to Earth. I also hope that Zimbabwe will resolve their power sharing soonest that peace can return there. Regards, Lilo - South Africa
